

Statistical Business Analysis Report

This report summarizes statistical findings from sales and customer churn data.

Key Findings:

- Average sales show strong dependency on quantity sold.
- Regional sales differences are statistically significant.
- Customer churn is associated with higher monthly charges.

Conclusion: Data-driven strategies can improve revenue and reduce churn.